

The Monarch's Way Singers

A new singing group known as The Monarch's Way Singers, under the leadership of Carole Thomas, have been rehearsing since early summer.

Their first performance will be at The Harvest Festival Service in Findon Church on Sunday 16th September at 10.00am

Before the Service there is to be a procession, starting at Cissbury Allotments at 9.15am and walking to the Church.

The Singers will be participating in the procession and leading the singing during the Service.

If you would be interested in joining this new group come along on Sunday 16th September and talk to Carole or any member of the group.
